

Contra Costa CAER Group, Inc.
Grant Program 2022
Application Selection Guidelines

1. Eligibility

Countywide non-profit organizations: as well as community organizations, agencies, cities, towns, childcare centers, homeless shelters, hospitals, health care facilities, CERT teams, schools, school district offices, and senior centers.

Must be exclusive to Contra Costa County in source and benefit.

Can be used to perform or support emergency preparedness activity.

2. Scope of activity for grant cycle scenario:

Broad applicability: Activity can provide value to communities within Contra Costa County

Broad community involvement: Activity includes representatives of local agencies, schools, businesses, and community groups or residents.

Probability of success: Activity scope is measurable and achievable within available resources and timeframe.

3. Emergency preparedness activity purpose:

Stated objectives: Must be a defined list of objectives.

Measures of success: Submission of completed critique within 30-60 days after completion of activity.

4. Resources to support emergency preparedness activity:

Funds available: Maximum up to $2,000. per grant available

Personnel resources: Committed/dedicated personnel to support active participation in process and for assisting with follow up recommendations from activity.

5. Application selection criteria:

Contra Costa County benefit

Multiple organization involvement, where applicable

Measurable objectives

New grant applicant may be given priority

Prior grant recipient with a completed critique on file

6. Grant is NOT intended to cover the following:

Salary reimbursement

Refreshments

Consultant fees

Any resource that can be acquired with NO COST (i.e. training, exercises, plan review, etc.)